Qualification	Pearson BTEC International Level 3 Qualifications in Sports
Unit number and title	Unit 33: Rules, Regulations and Officiating in Sport
Learning aim	B: Explore the performance of officials in a selected sport
Assignment title	The Performance of Officials
Assessor
Issue date
Hand in deadline

Vocational Scenario or Context	The next part of your officiating course requires you to produce a written report and video analysis of the performance of officials in a selected sport. Your report will be used by the course Assessor to determine your understanding of the key factors involved in the application of rules/laws and regulations in relation to different situations.
---------------------------------------	---

Task 1	It is important that you analyse the performance of officials through the use of different assessment methods (a minimum of two). This could be through the use of notational analysis, performance profiling or SWOT analysis for example. - Select an appropriate sport and analyse the performance of officials in that sport in a minimum of three different situations. - You should use your selected assessment methods to observe the performance of officials analysing the strengths and weaknesses in the performance. What impact did the strengths and weaknesses have? What were the implications of good and bad performance? - In the final part of your report you should recommend how the officials could develop their practice based on the strengths and weaknesses that have come out of your analysis. Justify your recommendations using the evidence from your observations to support your conclusions. You should consider a range of different options such as further practice, training, mentoring and self-analysis.
Criteria covered by this task:
Unit/Criteria reference	To achieve the criteria, you must show that you are able to:
